

Methys is an international Technology and Business Performance Management Consulting firm with operations in France, Benelux, UK and South Africa. Methys is focused on customer success, driving maximum business performance. Leveraging on partnerships with key technology providers and a rich set of methodologies blending functional and technological excellence, the passion of Methys people is about giving you the means to enhance the performance of your business.

To support the growth of its business, Methys is recruiting a:

Junior Business Intelligence Consultant

Take a lead role as a Junior Business Intelligence professional delivering complex and highly effective solutions to customers of Methys in the Africa region, and support the establishment of Methys South Africa as an offshore center for Methys European operations.

Located in recently established African headquarters of Methys, a European based BI Consulting firm, in Cape Town this position is suited for individuals with entrepreneurship spirit and with ambition to take part in the development of a very dynamic and innovative company specialized in Business Performance Management Solutions. International exposure High potential and financial rewards will be offered to hard working, innovative individuals ready to give their best in an environment where learning while having fun are a way of life .

Your mission

- Deliver billable Business Intelligence consulting services to clients of Methys in Africa
- To work closely with the Methys team and client's team, ensure relevant design, technical deployment, development and maintenance of Business Intelligence solutions in customer environment.
- From time to time conduct training sessions for customers (Methys University)
- Contribute to Methys Knowledge Base to improve the company's offering, products and performance.
- Teamwork with Methys Europe on to transfer technical support and development tasks to the Methys team in South Africa.

Your profile

- Mid twenties
- At least 2 years experience, preferably 3 years, in IT / Business Intelligence.
- Strong Knowledge of Databases (relational database design, indexes...) and SQL (Multilevel join query design)
- Knowledge of major BI products, Crystal Report (Business Object) essential, Oracle Hyperion Essbase, Microsoft BI suite and others a plus. Knowledge of ETL tools appreciated.
- Programming/IT experience and qualifications essential. Project Management qualification is a plus.
- Availability required as soon as possible.
- Knowledge of French or Portuguese is a plus

This position is on a full time contract, based in Cape Town.
Please send your application to: career@methys.com